To whom it may concern,

Advertising with Max Media and FLO 107.1 has been a great experience over the past year. The sales rep is attentive to my needs as a business owner and I have seen a steady increase in revenue since my commercial schedule doubled. My head shop continues to grow and I can attribute part of that to the consistency I've had with this radio company.

I appreciate the quality and fast turnaround of each commercial that's produced, the proactivity when it comes to including me in special on air features and the overall relationship and trust that has been built with Nikki Harris. I look forward to the day when I can add the sister station, Jammin' 101.5 and see even more growth and success.

I am definitely a fan of radio marketing and would recommend this particular radio group to any other business owner looking to use this medium to promote their brand. Cheers to forward movement and a continued partnership!

Sincerely,
